Complaint Description
Wes Cormier  (Mon, 3 Oct 2022 at 6:28 PM) The flyer says that under Commissioner Raines the General Fund Levy decreased (-26%), the Road Fund Levy decreased (-24%) and new construction is a total of $789 million since she took office. Firstly, levy rates increase and decrease for two reasons. Elected officials levy more/less taxes or the housing market increases/decreases (with the exception of the state school levy). Commissioner Raines only levied more taxes, not less. If your levy rate decreases, it does NOT mean your property tax is reduced. Likewise, if your levy rate increases, it does NOT mean your property taxes were increased. The decrease in the county Road Levy Rate (-24%) and Current Expense (General Fund) Rate (-26%) shown in this flyer is a direct result of the housing market. Not Commissioner Raines voting record despite her saying, "... the record shows consistency with no huge peaks and valleys." She had absolutely nothing to do with the trajectory of those levy rates. Secondly, I worked beside Commissioner Raines from 2015 to 2020 and she has not brought forward any legislative or administrative policy changes that would help new construction in our county. Lastly, Commissioner Raines has nothing to do with the Senior Exemption Program. It is administered and controlled by the County Assessor's Office. The flyer is grossly misleading and dishonest.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Incumbent and candidate for County Commissioner Vickie Raines presented a flyer/paper that outlined her successes over the past seven (7) years. The flyer was dishonest and misleading to the public. The flyer could change the outcome of a close and competitive race as it was distributed to more than 70 citizens and businesses at a business forum.

The Rhetoric Doesn't Pencil Out!

"My opponent has repeatedly stated that I increased taxes every year in office and that simply isn't the case. Serving 8 years with five other commissioners of different political affiliations, the record shows consistency and not huge peaks and valleys. I have an extensive history in finance. I believe Budgets matter—Experience counts! I'm asking for your Vote in this election".

- ★ County tax levy rate has decreased 26% since Commissioner Raines took office.
- ★ County Road Levy rate has decreased 24%.
- ★ New construction during Vickie's 8 years as commissioner has totaled $789.6 million.
- ★ Property tax exemptions for low income seniors has totaled $26.5 million, allowing our valuable seniors relief from taxes as our community grows.
